The value of property in the county, according to the present county rate assessment, is 773,794 l.

The county of Cumberland derives no income from any other source, save the ordinary amounts of fines on offences, and the small earnings at the gaol, which go in reduction of the expenses of the establishment.

The amount paid by the county for criminal prosecutions and conveyance of convicts is (with a reduction) reimbursed by the Treasury, who also contribute one-fourth of the expense of the pay and clothing of the constabulary force.

The rate per pound for three years previous to 1864 was about 1 s. 5 d. per pound; for the three years in present return, 1 s. 7 d. per pound; and for the three subsequent years will be about 1 s. 8 d. per pound sterling. |
